NOT !!

Your request has been handled under the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA) as a Subject Access Request (SAR).

No!

We have now concluded your request and have identified some personal data which relates to you from the information held by the Supreme Court Costs Office relating to period 30 January 2009. Recipients of this data would be some Departmental officials and those who were involved with the investigation.

Enclosed are copies of the Notice of Hearing dated 18th December and Final costs certificate.

The only information / data that has been shared with another party is the final costs certificate, which would have been served on the defendant's solicitors in any event.

We have not identified record of any meetings, briefings, electronic transmissions and / or records of telephone calls relating to the issue of the said certificate on the file.

I trust you find this information helpful.

If you are dissatisfied with the Departments handling of your subject access request, then it is open to you to take the matter to the courts or to the Information Commissioner. You can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at the following address:
