

'Visitor' to my site, UNKNOWN to me, with whom I exchanged emails - Given
(1) Fact that I denied the 27 February 2007 WLCC claim (and was proven right by the 6 June 2008 Notice of Discontinuance of "ALL" of the claim)
(2) Made this very clear in my 21 March 2007 email to the 'visitor', and in my 9 April 2007 email in response to his email of 5 April 2007
(3) the amount of the cheque paid by the 'visitor' 'happens to be' the FULL, PRECISE amount of interest claimed in the 27 Feb 07 claim- thereby implying an admission of liability of all of the claim

Dear Mr Hershkorn,

Flat 3, Jefferson House, 11 Basil Street.

On behalf of Miss N Rawe, who is too honest for her own good,
I am sending you a cheque for the interest (£1,069.31) you claim she owes. I hope this first installment will kick-start future installments and help break the impasse.

Please send me a receipt at the above address and another receipt to Miss Rawe.

Yours sincerely,

J.A

Martin Faulkner
