

She's 4ft 3in, drinks, smokes and makes her neighbours' lives hell. How could her parents let their daughter become ...

Asbo girl, aged 11

WHILE her classmates were doing their homework or texting their friends, [redacted] was smashing windows or rampaging through her neighbours' gardens.

By Fiona MacRae

was imposed after a four-month investigation by the Safer Hastings Partnership, whose members include the police and the borough and county councils.

And at 11 she has become the youngest child to be given an anti-social behaviour order.

Now she is banned from such behaviour.

The two-year order also prohibits [redacted] of Hastings, East Sussex, from damaging property and harassment that would cause alarm, not just on her estate but across the town. It

Menace: [redacted] terrorised her neighbours