Dear Madam / Sir

SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST UNDER THE DATA PROTECTION ACT 1998

To this effect, please find enclosed:

1. Completed and signed Form 3019 three-page 'Application for access to your personal data held on the Police National Computer (PNC) or Metropolitan Police Service (MPS) information systems'
2. Seven supplemental sheets to address the questions under 'Section 4 – MPS Specific Information Request'
3. Copy of my British driving licence
4. Copy of my Kensington & Chelsea Town Hall Council Tax demand for year 2009-2010
5. Cheque NatWest # [3<], for £10.00

Thank you in anticipation of your supplying me with the requested information.

Yours faithfully,

N Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawé

It led to my receiving 3 "crime reports" CR5604102-02; CR5602261-03; CR5605839-07

1 SECTION 4 – MPS SPECIFIC INFORMATION REQUEST

2 What happened to cause you to contact the police?

3 Events took place over three separate instances: in 2002, 2003 and 2007. All involved
4 Andrew David Ladsky, freeholder / front man for the ownership of Jefferson House, Basil
5 Street, London SW3 1AX, where I own a leasehold flat.

6 2002

7 Within days of my challenging works proposed by the 'managing' agents for Jefferson House
8 (Martin Russell Jones), I started to suffer harassment:

- 9 (1) being forced into, and pushed aside by Andrew Ladsky in the entrance corridor to 10 Jefferson House
11 (2) numerous anonymous phone calls to my flat;
12 (3) object thrown at my windows, late at night;
13 (4) pressing my door bell in the middle of the night.

14 On 19 February 2002, I filed a complaint at Chelsea police station and identified Andrew
15 Ladsky as the perpetrator and instigator of the harassment. (Harassment is an offence
16 punishable by imprisonment under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997).

17 On 20 February 2002, I was told by DC Adams, Kensington & Chelsea police, that my 18 'Application for telephone trace indecent, annoying or obscene telephone calls' had been 19 lost. I completed another one, and faxed it to him and faxed it to him on the same day.

20 British Telecom identified the numbers from which the c. 20 phone calls were made over a
21 three-day period to my home phone. According to Kensington & Chelsea police, the calls 22 were made from the mobile phone of a resident who, it was claimed, had "reported her
23 phone stolen" - four months previously – as well as from a landline which, British Telecom
24 told me, was Reach Europe.

25 As I was being messed around by CID, in my 2 April 2002 letter to Paul Webster, Detective
26 Inspector, Kensington & Chelsea police, I related the events that had taken place, asking for 27 his assistance. I also highlighted that at least four of my fellow residents had, by then, also
28 complained to the station against Andrew Ladsky. Kensington police # 4

29 Paul Webster replied, among others, in his 23 April 2002 letter "No crime report has been
30 reported to this police borough regarding Mr Ladsky, in your letter you mention that other
31 occupiers had complained this may be correct, but there are no reported crimes about Mr
32 Ladsky..."

33 Of note:

Elderly man; other resident

- 34 • When two of my fellow residents complained to Kensington & Chelsea police of suffering
35 harassment from Andrew Ladsky, his solicitor, Ms Ayesha Salim, Cawdery Kaye Fireman

1 & Taylor, London NW3 1QA, wrote to both of them, in an identical letter, dated 11
2 October 2001:

3 "We are informed that on the morning of Thursday 11th October 2001, you reported our
4 client to the police alleging that he had illegally entered flat 'x' and flat 'x'... Our client was
5 visited by Mr D Malam from the Chelsea Police Station. The police have investigated the 6 allegation and have determined that it was completely unfounded"

7 • DC Adams inadvertently revealed to me that he knew about two residents who had
8 complained of suffering harassment from Andrew Ladsky. One of them was the resident
9 who, it was claimed, made the anonymous phone calls to me.

10 DI Webster also wrote in his 23 April 2002 letter "...incidents between you and Mr Ladsky
11 none at this stage appear to be a crime..."

12 The attitude of Kensington & Chelsea police led me to contact Sir Toby Harris, then Chair of 13 the Metropolitan Police Authority, on 5 May 2002, asking for an independent investigation.

14 His 11 July 2002 reply was:

15 • In relation to my identifying Andrew Ladsky as being the perpetrator and originator of the 16 harassment "While this may or may not be the case, the police cannot act on the basis of 17 your suspicions, however strongly held, and must act only on the basis of established
18 facts";

19 • In relation to obtaining the name of the subscriber for the landline number: "Although the 20 subscriber for the landline was never identified, you must appreciate that officers have to 21 act with consideration for resource and time expenditure when investigating a case and 22 as such, it seems reasonable to assume that following [Mrs \[x\]](#) confession (NB: in relation 23 to the calls from a mobile phone) nothing further would be gained by ascertaining that 24 information...".

25 It also states "... given the assurances you have received from DCI Webster that any
26 evidenced criminal allegations will be investigated as appropriate, I would suggest that you
27 continue in your efforts to document any incidents that take place".

28 My 4 August 2002 reply included "All of this, added to my dealings with the police in recent 29 months, has led me to totally – and for ever - lose my confidence in the British police. So,
30 no, I will not waste any more time contacting Kensington & Chelsea police".

31 INFORMATION REQUEST FOR 2002

1.	Please supply a copy of my 19 February 2002 complaint as registered by the police.
2.	Please supply copy of briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations relating to

(1) my complaint against Andrew Ladsky, and

(2) my complaint to the Metropolitan Police Authority against Kensington & Chelsea police

1 2003

2 Following Andrew Ladsky telling me on 3 January 2003 “I am going to get you this year”, at
3 the end of January, I received a letter dated 27 January 2003 from Neil Watson PC 206BS,
4 Kensington & Chelsea police, stating:

5 “The police have been informed by a Mr Andrew Ladsky that you verbally abused him
6 in public over some sort of dispute revolving around your premises. Indeed, his 7 version of events have been confirmed by a witness...

8 Of perhaps greater importance is the fact that any further such outbursts may result in 9 *charges of harassment being made against you, as this initial complaint has been
10 fully recorded by the police...

11 *Please avoid (if you can) any confrontation with Mr Ladsky or there may be further 12 consequences.

13 In addition, would it be possible for you to call the above telephone numbers to clarify
14 the situation”

15 My not contacting Neil Watson led him to send me another letter, dated 6 February 2003,
16 asking me to contact him. I replied by recorded delivery on 11 February 2003, asking for 17 precise detail - in writing - of the accusation. I never received a reply.

18 In a letter dated 4 February 2003, Andrew Ladsky’s solicitor, Mr Lanny Silverstone, also at
19 Cawdery Kaye Fireman & Taylor, London NW3 1QA, threatened me with taking...

20 “...injunctive steps prior to other proceedings” for “quite improper and defamatory
21 allegations regarding the probity of our client company and also Mr Ladsky.

22 *The due process of law is under way to claim the perfectly proper service charges
23 that are due from you”

24 (NB: So “properly due” that it subsequently reduced its demand of me by £8,000. I have 25 black on white evidence that it assisted Andrew Ladsky commit a c. £500,000 fraud).

26 INFORMATION REQUEST FOR 2003

3. Please supply a copy of Andrew Ladsky’s January 2003 complaint against me - which (Contrast that with e.g. Overview on my site ; my 3 Jun 08 Witness Statement

See e.g. London LVT ; My Diary 6 May 08 ; My 19 Oct 03 Witness Statement

	has been “fully recorded” by the police - and any evidence provided by Andrew Ladsky in support of his complaint against me.
4.	Please supply copy of relevant procedure, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to the decision to have the complaint against me “fully recorded” – before even contacting me.
5.	Please supply copy of relevant procedure, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations relating to the “consequences” that took place – as referred to in Neil Watson comment's of “or there may be further consequences”
6.	Please provide copy of relevant procedure, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to Andrew Ladsky’s complaint against me to be “fully recorded” – whereas the complaint of harassment by Andrew Ladsky from at least four of my fellow residents was not recorded (DCI Webster, 23 April 2002 “...you mention that other occupiers had complained this may be correct, but there are no reported crimes about Mr Ladsky...”)
7.	Please supply copy of briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that have taken place between the police and Cawdery Kaye Fireman &amp; Taylor following my complaint to Chelsea police against its client, Andrew Ladsky .
8.	Please provide detail of individuals / organisations to which Andrew Ladsky's 2003 complaint against me - which was “fully recorded” by the police - has been transmitted, as well as copy of:  (1) The information supplied to the individuals / organisations  (2) Briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to this information being communicated to the individuals / organisations.

4 on K&C police page

1 2007

2 On 16 March 2007, Simon J. Dowling, TDC, of the 'Community Safety Unit' of Kensington & Chelsea police, sent an e-mail to my current website Host stating:

4 “Hi the above site contains some inappropriate use of the words “pigs and monkeys”
 5 which are racially abusive terms towards Jewish people from the Nazi’s.

1            This is directed at a particular person. I am the police officer dealing with this crime. I
 2            would therefore be grateful if this site could be taken down”

3            As a result of being challenged by my website Host who asked “Are you aware that there are 4            laws against making false accusations?” in his 20 March 2007 reply, Simon J. Dowling wrote:

5            “Thanks for your reply, yes there are laws relating to false reporting.

6            The producer of this website is franco-german in origin and so would be aware of the 7            terms pigs and monkeys used during the Nazi regime to refer to Jewish people.

8            Obviously the victim we have has picked up on this as he is Jewish.

9            If you are unable to close the site down I will let the victim know as there is nothing
 10           we as a police force can do except class it as a racist incident...”

11           It is obvious that the “particular person” who made this complaint is Andrew Ladsky, as he 12           wrote the same thing in his 26 March 2007 letter to my then employer, KPMG.

13           On 26/27 April 2007, three days after I gave prominence to the events on my website, the 14           message that, “The police is not going to pursue it. Isn't that good news?” was 15           communicated to me through KPMG. By then, five weeks had elapsed since the 20 March
 16           2007 e-mail from Simon J. Dowling. Nor had he contacted my website Host since.

17           INFORMATION REQUEST FOR 2007

9.	Please supply a copy of Andrew Ladsky's complaint against me to the police.
10.	Please supply copy of relevant procedure, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to the decision to have Simon J. Dowling contact my website Host - without ever contacting me, the owner and author of the website – i.e. neither before, during or after his contact with my website Host.
11.	Please supply copy of relevant procedure, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to the decision to have Simon J. Dowling contact my website Host – making totally unsupported accusations against me.
12.	As, in his 16 March 2007 e-mail to my website Host, Simon J. Dowling implied that I had ‘committed a crime’: “I am the officer dealing with this crime” - please supply copy of evidence, relevant procedure, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to the decision to have Simon J. Dowling contact my website Host implying that I had ‘committed a crime’.

13.	As, following being challenged by my website Host who asked “Are you aware that there are laws against making false accusations?”, Simon J. Dowling backed-down in his 20 March 2007 e-mail by stating “there is nothing we as a police force can do...” - please supply copy of briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led to Simon J. Dowling to back down on his implied accusation that I had ‘committed a crime’.
14.	As, following being challenged by my website Host, Simon J. Dowling backed down from his implied accusation that I had ‘committed a crime’ - please supply copy of briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that allowed him to breach the Metropolitan Police Service code that “MPS personnel must not use MPS systems to author, transmit or store documents such as electronic mail... containing ...defamatory,... illegal...material”
15.	Please supply copy of evidence, briefings, correspondence, including any electronic transmission, record of any meetings and of any telephone conversations that led / allowed Simon J.
