Dear Ms Klosterkötter-Dit-Rawe,

Thank you for your letter of 2 February to the Home Secretary about a police complaint. As I am sure you will appreciate, the Home Secretary receives a large amount of correspondence, and is unable to reply to each item individually. Therefore, your letter has been passed to the Direct Communications Unit and I have been asked to respond.

See Kensington
police # 5

As explained in previous correspondence the Home Secretary plays no part in the police complaints system. He can not comment or intervene in this matter for you. You have therefore done the right thing in complaining to Sir Paul Stephenson.

But IT IS HIS RESPONSIBILITY TO ENSURE THAT HIS DEPARTMENTS PERFORM THEIR LEGAL REMIT

Yours sincerely,

Mr K Allen
