Dear Ms Klosterotter-Dit-Rawe,

Re: Roostock Overseas Corp -v- Noelle Yvonne Slyvie Klosterotter-Dit-Rawe
Case No.: 7WL00675

The content of your letter of 18 February 2008 have been noted. However, in relation to your request for the case to be transferred to another court, this cannot be dealt with by letter, and as previously advised, you must make a formal application and pay the application fee of £75, Form N244 is enclosed to assist you.

Separately it is noted that you have still not filed your Allocation Questionnaire. In this respect the District Judge has now ordered that unless this is filed by 4.00pm on 14 March 2007 your defence will be struck out and the Claimant may apply for Judgment, a copy of the order is enclosed with this letter.

Yours sincerely

Miss Prentice

Before DISTRICT JUDGE RYAN sitting at West London County Court, West London Courthouse, 181 Talgarth Road, Hammersmith, London, W6 8DN.

It is ordered that unless the Defendant do file and serve a completed allocation questionnaire by no later than 4.00pm on the 14 March 2008, that the Defence be struck out without further order from the court.

This order has been made without a hearing under the court's case management powers contained in the Civil Procedure Rules, Part 3. You may within 7 days of the service of this order apply to the court to set aside or to vary the order under Part 23 rule 10. If you do so, you must file with the court and serve on the other parties an application that sets out your reasons for objection.
